Happy New Year! I hope you had a great holiday season and are ready for some new adventures! I have a lot planned and cannot wait to share our upcoming trips with you!

For our New Year's edition, I would like to take a moment and revisit everything we've done in the last year. So, brace yourself as we travel back in time...

We started off 2023 with mastering basketry. We all agreed... It was very fun but a bit harder than we anticipated. It certainly made us appreciate the completed baskets that we buy at the store.

For our next adventure we enjoyed a medieval feast, while cheering on knights as they battled before our eyes. Then, in April, we spent a day in Racine and witnessed glassblowing at the Hot Glass Shop. We were all lucky enough to bring home a glass friendship ball and a tasty Kringle.

The month of May brought us laughter as we visited The Fireside for lunch and a show. We enjoyed "Grumpy Old Men", a play that taught us to never take life too seriously and to cherish friendship. Then, in June, we traveled to Illinois to see a Cirque Du Soleil, Corteo. The show had the most exquisite actors and stunt performers. We left in awe.

Next up was the Racine County Fair! Despite the heat, many of you showed up to polka! We toasted to the late Steve Meisner. He was certainly missed. In August, we visited the Circus in Baraboo and helped send off the elephants following their final performance.

In September, we ventured to Chicago! The Chicago Architecture Cruise forecasted rain, but the moment we boarded our boat...it stopped! Our cruise tour guide was amazing, and the skyscraper views were breathtaking. Many of you braved experiencing TILT, an enclosed, glass and steel moveable platform that is one thousand feet above The Magnificent Mile!

Then came fall and our Mystery Trip! For this trip we visited the Beloit area. The highlight of the trip was the Historic Auto Attraction. This place was like no other! From wax figures to unique cars, to replicas of historic events, and so much more.

Next, a hundred of you joined us in November for a wonderful appreciation luncheon at TinCan Roadhouse. We enjoyed musical entertainment by Jeff Hagenau and a delicious lunch! That dessert table left us all full and speechless! Wow! Thank you to all of you that joined us!

To wrap up the year, we traveled to Missouri for Christmas in Branson. Our six-day trip included time in Branson and St. Louis. I think everyone's favorite show was "Sight and Sound's Queen Esther". The set for this performance was spectacular. I heard someone even use the word extraordinary. We watched plays, visited museums, went sightseeing, ate tasty donuts and delicious food. We stayed busy for the ride to and from, and I think we all made some great memories and new friendships.

For our final trip of the year, we visited The Fireside and enjoyed "Scrooge the Musical". A Christmas classic that everyone enjoyed! What a year 2023 was! Which I'm sure has all of you scratching your heads and wondering, "What's next!"

We have some great trips planned for 2024. I thought it might be fun to try a few new venues. So, in February we will be visiting Drury Lane in Illinois for the production of "Fiddler on the Roof". I know many of you like sweets, so we'll also make a quick stop at a sweets shop on our way to the play.

In March, I am very excited to announce that I'm bringing back a popular trip from 5 years ago. Cirque Du Soleil, Crystal is coming back to the Fiserv Forum! This jaw-dropping performance is done all on ice. Before we head to the show, we'll enjoy an early dinner, and we'll cap the night with dessert.

That leads us to April and for this trip we're going to experience something new and mysterious... We'll be visiting the Jacob Henry Mansion in Illinois for a murder mystery luncheon! Bring your thinking caps because it will be our job to find out who did the crime... Following lunch, we'll take a tour of the mansion and spend a couple of hours in town where you'll have the option of spending some time at Harrah's Casino or exploring the Joliet Area Historical Museum. So many options, but you must choose just one!

For our final trip, we'll venture to The Fireside Theatre to see, Nunsense. We'll enjoy a fabulous meal and then laugh the afternoon away!

Well, that about covers this newsletter! We have so many memories to make in the near future! I want to thank every one of you for being Harvest Club Members. It's been a pleasure traveling with you and I'm looking forward to our future adventures!

If you haven't ever been on a trip, please try one out and I promise you will be hooked. Feel free to call me or email any questions about the trips.

Enjoy each day and remember to smile!
