Dublin - Killarney

Bid farewell to Dublin as you journey into Ireland's lush and storied countryside. Your first stop is the charming town of Cashel, where you'll pause to admire the legendary Rock of Cashel—a dramatic hilltop site steeped in myth and history. It's said to be the very place where St. Patrick preached and converted the King of Munster in the 5th century.

B, D

Continue southward to one of Ireland's most iconic landmarks: Blarney Castle. Explore the castle grounds, climb the ancient stone steps, and if you dare, lean back to kiss the Blarney Stone. According to legend, this bold act bestows the "gift of the gab," or persuasive eloquence.

This unforgettable day concludes in the storybook town of Killarney, nestled beside lakes and mountains in one of Ireland's most scenic regions. Settle into your hotel and enjoy a delicious dinner at a local restaurant, savoring Irish hospitality at its finest.

Killarney - Cliffs of Moher - Ennis

Today's journey takes you along the Wild Atlantic Way, beginning with a visit to the Foynes Flying Boat & Maritime Museum. Step back in time to the golden age of transatlantic aviation and discover how this tiny port town played a vital role in early international air travel. You'll also learn about Hollywood legend Maureen O'Hara, who had a deep personal connection to Foynes and its storied past. From aviation history to natural wonder, your next stop is one of Ireland's most iconic sights: the Cliffs of Moher. Towering 700 feet above the Atlantic Ocean, these majestic cliffs offer sweeping views of the sea and the distant Aran Islands. Take your time to soak in the sheer grandeur of this natural masterpiece. Your day concludes in the quaint and welcoming town of Ennis, known for its medieval charm and lively traditional music scene. Settle into your historic hotel, unwind, and enjoy an evening steeped in the hospitality and heart of Ireland.
